Modes of Payment

Friends of LUMS
A large number of financial assistance opportunities are available to undergraduate and graduate students at LUMS based on need and merit. Assistance is given in the form of tuition fee waivers, stipends, student loans and on campus jobs. Other sources include the USAID Funded Merit & Need Based Scholarship Programme and various named scholarships. However, the bulk of the financial assistance at the undergraduate level is given via two programmes LUMS Financial Assistance and National Outreach Programme (NOP).

I. LUMS Financial Assistance

Financing a student’s education is a commitment involving the student, his/her family and the university. LUMS gears all efforts towards assisting as many students as possible within its limited resources. Financial assistance is offered to students with demonstrated need. These awards at the undergraduate level are available in the form of tuition waivers and do not have to be repaid. They cover partial to full tuition fee expenses of the programme. The students financed under this programme are able to contribute partially or even nothing, thus their financing varies from 20% to 100%. These awards are reassessed in each academic year based upon performance and demonstrated financial need of the students.

To envision the future of a nation, one must observe the condition of its youth. For youth is that powerful resource, which can either construct or destruct an entire nation. It is this knowledge and the sense of responsibility towards the progress of Pakistan that led a group of leading industrialists to lay the foundations of a world-class university in the year 1985.

To maintain a link between the industry and the university, a Board of Governors was established, comprising of eminent members of the business community and academia who assist in raising the necessary funds for the unimpeded progress of LUMS. The combined efforts of faculty, staff, Board of Governors, and the generous benefaction of sponsors, have greatly facilitated the university’s progress. In terms of academic development, LUMS now prides itself with Suleman Dawood School of Business, Musharraf Ahmad Gurmani School of Humanities and Social Sciences, and Syed Babar Ali School of Science and Engineering. All three schools offer a range of undergraduate and graduate programmes.

From the very first glimmer of an idea to tangible reality, the main objective of this university has been to educate with an impartiality. LUMS and all those who have made LUMS possible, strongly believe in encouraging the talented to benefit from the education they deserve – notwithstanding financial concerns.
II. National Outreach Programme (NOP)

The National Outreach Programme (NOP) is another LUMS initiative to promote and cultivate the widespread talent and potential of Pakistan, especially from the lowest income households. The programme was launched in 2001, with an aim to extend world-class education to the brightest students from humble financial backgrounds coming from all over Pakistan. Based on financial assessment, this programme covers 100% tuition fee, accommodation, living and books allowance. The NOP scholarship programme focuses on identifying bright students with exceptional educational records from the lowest-income households and inducting them into LUMS undergraduate programmes.

LUMS, along with its supportive network of friends, is determined to further enlarge its scope of changing lives. The university believes that its National Outreach Programme is not just a programme that helps individuals, but in reality it’s improving the community at large.

"When my relatives learnt about my daughter’s admission at LUMS, they were in a state of shock. Anyone who hears about it is baffled that an ordinary rickshaw stand guard can afford LUMS for his children. And when I went there I was honoured. The entire 8 member board stood up to receive me. And this was a great gesture of respect I can never forget.

We are very grateful to LUMS for giving us this opportunity through NOP to send our child to LUMS. Otherwise, we could not imagine getting our children enrolled at such an institute.

If parents are educated they will educate their children. But for an educated parent it is God’s gift that their children get an opportunity to study. The greatest happiness that I can think of is for my son to be studying in Pakistan’s top university, LUMS."
