SHAIKH AHMAD HASSAN
SCHOOL OF LAW (SAHSOL)

WELCOME TO SHAIKH AHMAD HASSAN SCHOOL OF LAW (SAHSOL)

The Shaikh Ahmad Hassan School of Law (SAHSOL) combines the richness of liberal arts education with a solid professional training in law. The School offers a five-year BA-LL.B (Honours) degree fully recognised by the Pakistan Bar Council (PBC) and Higher Education Commission (HEC) as a qualifying law degree since 2003.

“LUMS has been offering the BA-LL.B degree since 2003; first as the Department of Law and Policy at the School of Humanities and Social Sciences and since 2012, as one of the five Schools at LUMS. SAHSOL has a highly qualified faculty and high achieving students. By bringing these two strengths into a productive relationship, the Law School aspires for a national and international reputation.

We are selective in our acceptance rate and our students form an exclusive community within the University. SAHSOL offers the space for its students to socially and intellectually thrive and grow. The rigorous and innovative training our faculty imparts, enables the students to succeed in the legal profession. After graduation many end up working in top law firms in the country or are accepted for higher training at some of the best universities abroad.”

Dr. Kamran Asdar Ali
Acting Dean
Shaikh Ahmad Hassan School of Law

WHY BA-LL.B?

Well-Rounded Curriculum

The BA phase of the degree is interdisciplinary in nature and exposes students to a wide range of disciplines offered at other schools. Twenty-two core law subjects are taught in the LL.B phase in the last 3 years, making the students well-rounded law professionals who can contribute more meaningfully to law and the society.

Networking Opportunities

Mentoring programmes, industry talks and recruitment events at SAHSOL connect students with legal practitioners and industry leaders enabling them to connect with each other, and learn from experts.

Critical Thinking

The Socratic Method engages students in dynamic discussions and enhances their critical and analytical reasoning skills.

Real World Training

SAHSOL provides legal internships, encourages contribution to the LUMS Law Journal, and participation in international moot court competitions, offers assistance to faculty research, and helps undertake clinical courses, pro bono work and the Street Law Programme.

Faculty to Student Ratio 1:2
